Hello friends! It will be my pleasure to welcome you to the Boca Raton Resort & Club this year -- the ideal location for a fun and memorable family vacation, while attending the 21st Annual FLABOTA Convention and Awards Banquet. This year is particularly special because we have the honor of having -- two -- Supreme Court Justices join and speak to us: Chief Justice Jorge Labarga and Justice Barbara Pariente.

Everything that you would wish for is already in place at the Boca Raton Resort & Club. You will have shuttle access to 400 acres of a wide variety of activities: two golf courses designed by Hugh Hughes (and a free range), 30 clay-based tennis courts including 12 Har-Tru courts at the Resort's Country Club and 18 Hydro-Grid Courts at Boca Raton Resort & Club, yachts on-site that launch for fishing trips, learning to surf or be completely relaxed and at the #1 Spa in the World in Condé Nast Traveler's Readers' Choice Awards (reservations are no sweat with over 44 treatment rooms and a large, accommodating staff.)

The resort is designed for family time with your children or grandchildren. There is also a "Family Fun" staff, which conducts children activities, while the adults can attend the CLE program or play elsewhere.

So set aside your time for legal education, family and fellowship at this year's meeting. Take advantage of all these amenities secured at deep discounted accommodation pricing from the bungalows to the Yacht Club Tower. And when they ask, "Are we there yet?" You can stop at the valet in front, and smile and say, "Yes, we are."

William R. Clayton, President FLABOTA
